

Valley Geotechnical is currently seeking a Geotechnical Engineer or Engineer in Training (EIT) to join our team in Kelowna. This position will involve working on projects ranging from small residential applications to large scale developments. This position greatly emphasizes on interactions with fellow employees, consultants, contractors and the general public.

Background for an ideal candidate includes:

- Excellent hand written and verbal communication skills
- Excellent computer skills including experience with Microsoft Office and AutoCAD
- Excellent organizational skills
- The ability to work well in a team environment and independently
- A driver's license with a vehicle.

Responsibilities of the successful applicant could include:

- Project management
- Site work and inspections
- Report and proposal writing
- Mentoring fellow employees

We will offer a competitive wage for qualified individuals. A standard probationary period of 3 months will apply after which a full-time position will follow with a competitive benefits package.

To consider this opportunity, please send your cover letter and resume to general@valleygeo.ca attention Brad VanDelft.

Valley Geotechnical would like to thank all applicants for expressed interest in our firm; however, only candidates considered for an interview will be contacted.

